Purpose of this song

- To be used at the start of service, or after a fellowship break to focus people's attention back on worship.

Suggestions for using this song

- Put the words on an overhead projector, with information about the next song.
- Repeat until majority of people are focused.
- Let the ushers know to usher remaining people in and close the main doors.
- If possible segue into the next song (such as "#109 Rejoice" by Greg Petit).
